

2017 Utah State Fair

Special Needs Program Guidelines

Organizations must serve persons with physical or mental disabilities or limitations to be considered a special needs organization. No exceptions will be made. Special needs group requests must be filled in advance. Groups will not be allowed to fill out a form at the gate for admission.

Program is for organizations only. No individual special needs admission is available.

To request special needs admission and receive a Special Needs Admission Form allowing your organization to purchase $1.00 admission:

1. Request must be typed or legibly written on official letterhead. No photocopies or faxes will be accepted.
2. Letterhead must include the name of the organization, address and phone number.
3. Request letters must include the name of the person making the request, their title or position within the organization and their phone number.
4. Letter must include a short description of the organizations service or program.
5. List what day(s) you plan on attending the Fair. The 2017 Utah State Fair runs September 7-17.
6. State the number of tickets needed per day of attendance– including chaperones.
7. If you require more than one visit, only one form, per day of the Fair, per group will be issued.
8. Requests must be mailed to 155 North 1000 West, Salt Lake City, UT 84116.

Due to the demands of operations during the Fair, requests must be received, by hand delivery or postmarked, on or before Friday, August 25, 2017. No hand delivered requests will be filled at the time of delivery.

After reviewing your request, and if the organization meets the criteria, a Special Needs Admission Form will be mailed to you or, per your request, left in Will Call at the Fair Administration Building– 155 North 1000 West, Salt Lake City.

Admission must be paid on the day of visit at any Utah State Fair ticket booth. A preauthorized Special Needs Admission Form must be presented to purchase the $1.00 admission.

Admission must be paid with cash, one check, one money order or one credit card. No purchase orders or billing is available. Organization must arrange to arrive as one group. No individual tickets are issued.

Parking cost is the responsibility of the organization. Special needs admission does not include Grandstand or other ticketed entertainment. We will be glad to answer any questions you have. See you at the Fair!

Join Us for a Special Day!

Wednesday, September 13th, 2017

10:00 AM– 12:00 PM

10:00 AM- Carnival Rides Open

11:00 AM- Snacks

12:00 PM- Circus Performance

The Utah State Fair will be hosting the Circus Spectacular again in 2017. They have agreed to perform a show just for our special needs guests on Special Needs Day. Groups must check-in with Fair staff at the north-west gate– Gate B. At check-in, you will receive a packet with wristbands for rides, a grounds map and instructions for the day. Rides and snacks will be available from 10:00-12:00 noon in the midway at the Sugar Shack– west end of Mall 3. At 12:00 noon, we will move to the circus tent for the special performance.

Circus tickets will be given out on a first come, first serve basis the day of the event at the circus tent. Groups will line up by the circus entrance and tickets will be handed out 15 minutes before show time that day. Seating, especially wheelchair seating, is limited so arrive early to claim your tickets and seats. RSVP card and request letter must be returned, hand delivered, or postmarked, by Friday, August 25, 2017.

Groups must meet all Special Needs Program Guidelines to receive an admission form. Please state in your request letter if your group plans to attend this special event.

Groups must be adequately supervised. Rides will be limited to those which are safe for special needs patrons. Chaperones are responsible for overseeing those patrons with diet restrictions.
