Student Competition Rules

Please read carefully and follow all rules.

Essay Competition:

(Students must attend the 2017 Utah State Fair to compete in this contest)

Kindergarten—Third Grades:

- On a standard white sheet of paper, draw and color a picture of your fun learning experience at the Fair.
- Remember to use only one experience.
- On the front of your picture, write (or have an adult write) one sentence explaining why this was a fun learning experience.
- Pictures without text will be disqualified.

Fourth– Sixth Grades:

- Write an essay (no longer than one page in length, one sided) about your favorite experience at the Fair and why. Try to focus on one particular experience.

Entries will be judged on grade level, students ability to focus on one experience and the details of why they chose the experience.

Blue Ribbon Contest:

(Fair attendance is not required for this contest)

Kindergarten- Third Grades:

- Imagine you have won a blue ribbon. Draw and color a picture of what you did to win it. Then write (or have an adult write) one sentence explaining the activity or project you completed to win the blue ribbon.
- Pictures without text will be disqualified.
- Please use the form that is provided.

Fourth– Sixth Grades:

- Imagine you have won a blue ribbon. Draw a picture of what you did to win it. Then write a short story explaining the activity or project you completed to win the blue ribbon.
- Stories without drawings will be disqualified.
- Please use the form that is provided.

Entries will be judged on grade level and the students creative thinking.
